PEORIANS SCANDALIZED

SUICIDE OF DR. SIMMONS, ONE OF THE MOST PROMINENT CITIZENS.

Fearful Exposures Come to Light—Minister, Financier and Author—Entered Political Arena as Campaign Manager for Ex-Governor Yates a Few Weeks Ago.

Peoria, Feb. 6.—Dr. George H. Simmons, pastor of the First Baptist church, says the Peoria Journal, committed suicide by taking cyanide of potassium some time during Monday night.

His death by his own hand is the result of sensational and indecent exposures made before State's Attorney Scholes.

Deceased came here from Terre Haute, Ind., and had been pastor of the First Baptist church for five years. He was the inventor of Moco and successful in its sale. He was appointed by former Governor Yates his Peoria county manager on Jan. 24, accepting the honor some days later.

He left a confession in which he says that his associates nor Governor Yates should be held responsible for his acts.

He had been pastor of churches in Texas, Jackson, Tenn.; Louisville, Ky.; Terre Haute, Ind., and Peoria.

For two days he had been the object of an investigation by State's Attorney Scholes, to whom some appalling stories of disgrace and debauchery had been told. Late Monday afternoon some of the boys of the congregation made some startling confessions to that official, and it seemed as if the arrest, with the subsequent exposure of the reverend man, was but a few hours off. Realizing what was about to happen, Mr. Simmons is presumed to have taken cyanide of potassium after his retirement, which did the fatal work while he slept.

REPORTS CORRECT.

The reports of Rev. Dr. Simmons' acts had reached Springfield, and ex-Governor Yates had Colonel Conzelmann of Pekin come to Peoria immediately to investigate the situation. Colonel Conzelmann visited the office of the state's attorney Monday afternoon and had a brief interview with Mr. Scholes. The latter was ready to give what information he had at hand. "You can't imagine the extent of it," said the state's attorney. "It is true. There will be more disclosures. From the testimony that I have had so far from one of the lads I know enough."

Colonel Conzelmann did not stay very long, but returned to Pekin and then notified the ex-governor over the long distance telephone of the nature of his mission. What conversation passed between them is of course not public, but it is understood that Mr. Yates had already concluded to ask the Rev. Dr. Simmons to resign at once as his campaign manager in this county.

CAREER OF SIMMONS.

Dr. George H. Simmons was called to the pastorate of the First Baptist church a little more than five years ago, and instantly sprang into prominence. He was ambitious, having secured a name in the religious world, he decided to embark in business. He invented a substitute for coffee, which he called Moco. It was made of cereals, and interesting capital with him immediately began. His manufacture on Main street. Here his remarkable energy shined in good hand, and he was successful in this business venture from the very first. Having started on a business career, he determined to continue it and immediately took steps for the organization of the Interstate Bank and Trust company, in which he interested a number of financiers of the city.

The ambition of Dr. Simmons knew no bounds. Having been successful in the ministry and the business world, he sought other fields to conquer, and within the last month had been quite frequently mentioned in connection with the congressional campaign. While he was believed to have ambitions in this direction he had made no positive statement.

Former Governor Yates, who is a candidate for election as United States senator, made a visit to Peoria for a few hours on Wednesday, Jan. 24. With him was A. L. French, a member of the board of railroad and warehouse commissioners, and who is Mr. Yates' campaign manager. By appointment they met Dr. George A. Zeller, chairman of the Republican county central committee, and Dr. Simmons, at the National hotel, where a luncheon was served.

OFFERED THE MANAGEMENT.

During the course of the conversation at this luncheon, Mr. Yates offered Dr. Simmons the management of his campaign in Peoria county, and urged that he accept it. Dr. Simmons pleaded for time. He stated he was anxious to interview some of his friends and see what they thought about it. It was a new field for him.

He pondered the whole matter over for some days and against the advice of some of his closest friends decided to become the manager, and drafted a reply of acceptance to the former governor. In this letter he assumed a remarkably high moral attitude, stating that he accepted the honor with the understanding that the campaign was to be conducted on the "highest principles of honor and honesty."

He expressed the hope that men of a higher standard should be interested in politics, and had reason, he said, for believing that this could be brought about. His entire letter was written in this strain, and spoke of his great desire to elevate the standard of politics.

YATES REPLIES IN KIND.

A few days later he received a reply from former Governor Yates thanking him for his acceptance of the position. Appreciating the noble sentiments expressed by Dr. Simmons, Mr. Yates assured him that that was the only kind of a campaign he desired.

This letter of Dr. Simmons is believed to have been responsible for the disclosures that so speedily followed. The disgraceful conduct of Dr. Simmons had been bruited about in certain quarters for a long time, but never before had been the result of official investigation. When the proposition to elevate the morals of politics in Peoria came from him, the storm broke. That Dr. Simmons believed his entrance responsible for the subsequent disclosures is evident by the reference he makes to it in his letter written as he was dying.

BANK CLOSED

Financial Institution Ruined by Suicide of Simmons.

Peoria, Feb. 6.—The People's Savings bank, a private institution owned by the late Dr. George Simmons, who committed suicide last night, and L. N. Kelly, has been ruined by the Simmons suicide. It has liabilities of $116,000; assets variously estimated at $75,000 to $100,000, principally in real estate. By agreement reached between the dead man and his partner a few hours before the poison was taken, the People's bank was not to be opened in the morning, having suffered heavily from the run Monday. Negotiations for the sale of the bank were broken off on news of the suicide.

Officers of the bank to night refused to give out a statement of the result of the investigation of the bank's condition, which was conducted to day, other than to firmly insist the bank would be solvent. Under the law the partnership is dissolved by Simmons' death and the affairs of the bank must be wound up in the probate court.

No proof has been produced to day to show the suicide was a defaulter, although secrecy maintained by officials of the bank has led to much uneasiness. Simmons had little property himself, and his estate is not expected to run above $20,000. His interest in the Interstate bank was $1,000 and it is said by officials of that bank that he was but a figurehead, retained for the prestige his name gave the institution. The Interstate suffered withdrawals of $20,000 to day, but paid all demands.

The coroner's inquest will be begun Wednesday morning and Coroner Baker has announced his intention of investigating not only the causes of death, but remote causes, including the crimes with which he was charged. The autopsy performed late this evening was secret, but it is said by the coroner the condition of the body indicated cyanide of potassium poisoning.

SENATORIAL CANDIDATE.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 6.—Arthur Hill of Saginaw, a wealthy lumberman, to day made formal announcement of his candidacy for the United States senate in opposition to Senator Alger in 1907, and issued a platform upon which his candidacy will be based. Hill's platform is that the state committee shall give notice that the next Republican state convention will nominate a senatorial candidate to be elected by the legislature.

UPHELD CITY

Indianapolis Has Right to Purchase Gas Plant.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—The purchase of the gas plant of the Consumers' Gas Trust company of Indianapolis, Ind., by the city of Indianapolis for municipal ownership purposes is declared legal in an opinion given here to day by the United States circuit court of appeals. The decision reverses the decree of the court in Indianapolis restraining the city from purchasing the plant, the franchise of which has been terminated. To day's decision of the court of appeals is an ancillary proceeding in which Indianapolis asserted the right to become the exclusive purchaser of the gas plant.

WRECK ON MISSOURI PACIFIC.

Falls City, Neb., Feb. 6.—Passenger train No. 165, going north, collided with a freight train, going south to day, near Strausville, on the Missouri Pacific road. N. A. Anderson, of Omaha, was killed; Baggageman Trueblood, Fireman Wilcoxson, Engineer McCambridge and Conductor "Jack" Nail, all of Kansas City, the passenger crew, were slightly injured. None of the passengers were injured. Anderson was riding the blind baggage.

MODIFICATION OF HAZING LAW

URGED IN LETTER BY THE PRESIDENT.

Navy Department Will Suffer Unless Changes are Made by Congress—Many Midshipmen Now in Danger of Dismissal.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The president to day made public a letter urging upon congress modification of the law against hazing at the Naval academy. Unless congress shall promptly amend the existing law against hazing, which makes mandatory the dismissal of any midshipman found guilty of any form of hazing, the secretary of the navy may be forced to dismiss thirty-three midshipmen from the Naval academy within the next month, in addition to eight who have already suffered this penalty, and the three whose cases are awaiting action of the department. Secretary Bonaparte, after urging upon individual members of congress the necessity for immediate legislation, finally laid the whole matter before the president.

It is admitted at the navy department that if the present law is allowed to stand the service will suffer severely. The investigating board of officers appointed by the superintendent of the academy to obtain evidence against all midshipmen guilty of any form of hazing has already brought to light evidence resulting in the trial of fourteen midshipmen, of whom two have been acquitted, eight dismissed, one pardoned while under sentence of dismissal, and another, Midshipman Miller Meriwether, Jr., whose case is now awaiting action by the department, was found guilty and recommended for pardon.

Papers in the cases of Midshipman James, of Virginia, and Midshipman W. T. Boyd, Jr., of Illinois, are before the department for execution of the sentence of dismissal. The investigating board has left with the academy superintendent evidence against thirty-three other midshipmen, who will probably be ordered for court-martial. The law will necessitate the dismissal of each midshipman found guilty. Included in the list are midshipmen whose records are otherwise above reproach, among them members of the first class who will graduate next week and a number related to prominent congressmen.

The case of Midshipman Meriwether, now before the secretary of the navy will probably come to the president for consideration. Meriwether is serving a sentence of one year's confinement to the academy grounds for participation in the fatal hazing with Midshipman Branch. Evidence in his trial for hazing as to the character of his pranks, is the ground upon which the question of his pardon is being considered.

The president in his letter on hazing points out that, in some instances, it is manifestly unjust to submit a midshipman convicted of hazing to dismissal from the academy, as frequently the punishment is quite disproportionate to the offense committed. He suggested that it is an error to try a midshipman accused of hazing by court-martial. His idea is that the power to deal with such cases ought to be lodged in some administrative officer or body to deal summarily with the cases. The president was inclined to take up the subject with the committee of congress by reason of the facts submitted to him in the John Paul Miller case. He pardoned young Miller because he felt his dismissal from the academy would be a greater injustice than the midshipman had committed on the man he hazed.

COST OF INVESTIGATION.

New York, Feb. 6.—Special investigations of the affairs of the Equitable Life Assurance society within a year have cost that corporation more than $200,000, according to a statement authorized by Paul Morton, president of the Equitable, who said while the investigations had been exceedingly expensive, they had been worth to the policyholders more than they had cost.

RUN DOWN BY TRAIN.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 6.—John Gill and Charles Cosgrove, driving in a covered carriage late this afternoon, were run down by an Illinois Central passenger train at a crossing near Moberly, Iowa, and killed. Raymond Quinn, aged 15, son of Dr. Quinn of Moberly, who was with them, was badly mangled and may not recover.

KILLED IN COLLISION.

Portland, Ore., Feb. 6.—Four persons were killed and ten more or less seriously injured to day in a collision on the Oregon Railroad and Navigation company's line near Bridal Veil, Ore. The dead, E. L. Slinot, A. E. Edwards and George Buchanan, of Portland, and J. W. Frost, of Walla Walla, Wash.

FAMILY TRAGEDY.

TRY TO BURN HOME

Attempt Made to Cremate Sheriff and Nine Inmates of a House in Dakota Town.

Minot, N. D., Feb. 6.—The village of Portal is greatly excited over what appears to have been a deliberate attempt to burn a home and cremate its nine inmates. The house was at the home of Lee Olsen, foreman of the Soo roundhouse; Sheriff John Lee of Ward county also lives there, and the plot, it is thought, was against him. Olsen was awakened at 1 o'clock this morning by noises beneath his bedroom window. He saw three men outside, who started to run away when they saw Olsen. The latter awakened Sheriff Lee, who was sleeping in the same room, and both men grabbing guns, started in pursuit. One of the men, William Coyne, was seriously wounded, and another, Howard Smith, was captured.

A communication showed the men had bored a hole through the side of the house. Beside this was a can of gasoline. It is believed the intention was to pour gasoline into the hole and set fire to the house in the hope of cremating the sheriff, who last week caused the arrest of eleven Portal gamblers. Threats of lynching have been made and it may be necessary to call out the militia to preserve order.

DEATH.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 6.—David B. Frankenberg, for a quarter of a century professor of rhetoric at the University of Wisconsin, died to day of paralysis, aged 60 years. He was known in college circles throughout the nation. Frankenberg graduated both in letters and law from Wisconsin university and had been a teacher there ever since. A wife and two daughters survive him.

Vienna, Austria, Feb. 6.—Prince Paul Metternich, second son of Prince Metternich, who took a prominent part in the events which led to the fall of Emperor Napoleon III, is dead, aged 71 years.

MOODY ON THE STAND

Attorney General Takes Part in Trial of Packers.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—United States Attorney General Moody took part to day in the trial of the packers' case. At the opening of court he was called upon by Attorney Miller, representing Armour & Co., to produce the original copy of a letter written to him by President Roosevelt, or to admit the authenticity of a copy which Miller produced in court. The attorney general admitted the accuracy of the document as a copy, but declared the clause in the letter which attorneys for the packers construed as meaning that the departments of justice and commerce and labor were not correct. His assertion caused much excitement among attorneys for the packers and they objected to the statement of the attorney general as being improper before the jury. The letter was not offered in evidence, but was marked for identification.

But three witnesses were on the stand to day, and their evidence was of general interest, relating as it did entirely to the manner in which agents of the government examined the books of Nelson Morris & Co. and of the Fairbank Canning company. Two afternoon sessions were taken up by reading to the court of the Garfield report on the packing industry. It is a document of 320 pages.

DEMAND RESIGNATION.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 6.—By a practically unanimous vote the resolution demanding the resignations of President Dolan and Vice President Billington for violating their instructions in paying to accept the big wage scale at Allegheny, and of Secretary-Treasurer Dolan by reason of his action as clerk of the courts of Allegheny county, passed this afternoon. Dolan declared, however, he would not resign and that the miners would have to replace him by referendum vote. Adjournment was taken until to morrow.

TURNED ON THE GAS

Woman Murders Four Children and Self.

Boston, Mass., Feb. 6.—A woman and four children were found dead in bed at their home, 23 Dobbs street, in the Roxbury district, to night. An investigation by the police indicated the woman, Mrs. Annie L. Dixon, had killed the children and herself by opening three gas jets. The children were: Annie, aged 5 years; George, 3 years and six months; and Marion, aged 1 year.

AFTER MAYOR DUNNE.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 6.—A petition asking a writ of mandamus be issued to compel Mayor Dunne to enforce the Sunday closing law in Chicago as regards saloons was filed to day in the supreme court. An answer was filed by Corporation Counsel Lewis, in which he questions the right of the petition being taken under consideration by the court, holding this is not the legal method of procedure to take.

DEBATE WILL CLOSE TODAY

WIND-UP OF RATE DISCUSSION IN HOUSE.

Railroads Get Full Share of Criticism—Treaty Talk in the Senate—Other News from Washington.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Having fixed the end of general debate on the rate bill at 4:30 to morrow, recognition of the chair was passed around at a lively rate in the house to day. Seventeen speeches were made, all for the measure. Railroaders came in for an unusual amount of criticism.

Gillespie, of Texas, expressed his dissatisfaction with the reply to his resolution, hinting at a combination between the Pennsylvania and other railroads. He will address a request to the president to have the interstate commerce commission make a thorough investigation along these lines he will indicate to clear up this subject.

Gaines, of West Virginia, placed in the record evidence of combinations of railroads to control the coal output of his state, a traffic agreement between many southern roads and steamship lines indicating a division of the territory to control business. He said it was because competition had ceased already that the pending bill was demanded.

The day ended with a general laugh at Sulzer, of New York, who made his appearance as a humorist. He teased opponents of the bill, viewed with suspicion the unanimous report and pointed out as the "African in the woodpile" the word "unrepealed," which he said would apply to every rate fixed until the poor shipper was financially suspended in trying to enter the bill. However, he will vote for the bill.

The list of speakers included Burnett, of Alabama; Lewis, of Georgia; Gudgeon, of North Carolina; Dickson, of Illinois; Gillespie, of Texas; Stanley, of Kentucky; Muldock, of Kansas; Comer, of Iowa; Hubbard, of Iowa; Taft, of Iowa; Gaines, of West Virginia; Small, of North Carolina; Pinney, of South Carolina; Madden, of Illinois; Waldo, of New York; Candlish, of Mississippi, and Sulzer, of New York.

SENATE.

The senate did not have an opportunity to day to hear a discussion of Patterson's resolution on the action of the Democratic caucus, but gave the entire day to a revival of prerogatives of the senate in the matter of framing treaties. The question was raised by Bacon in a speech on his resolution requesting information concerning the Algebras conference. He talked for almost three hours and was followed by Spooner, who spoke for considerably more than an hour. Both speeches were interspersed with debate, largely between Bacon and Spooner, and there were two or three very sharp clashes between them.

Patterson yielded the floor at the beginning of the day's sitting to Bacon, giving notice he would speak to morrow. Lodge gave notice of a speech Monday on the tariff bill.

NATURALIZATION BILL.

The house committee on immigration and naturalization practically agreed to day on the Howell naturalization bill, in a slightly amended form. The suggestion of the committee passed by the president to report on desirable changes in naturalization and immigration laws are embodied in the bill. No decision was reached as to whether a separate bureau of naturalization shall be established under the department of commerce and labor or whether naturalization and immigration shall be combined under one bureau. The subcommittee will determine which plan shall be adopted. As the bill stands now it requires applicants to file their applications for final naturalization papers ninety days before the hearing; the court order shall not issue until thirty days after the hearing, and allows appeals from the court orders; it requires five years' residence for naturalization; ability to write English or some other language, and to speak and read English; no person shall be naturalized within thirty days before a general election.

TO MAKE INVESTIGATION.

By direction of the president a searching investigation will be made by a special commission into the disaster to the steamship Valencia, which occurred recently off the coast of Vancouver. The United States district attorney has been directed to assist the commission. Secretary Root has taken up with Canadian authorities the question of establishing and maintaining suitable light houses on the Vancouver coast with a view to prevent further serious accidents to vessels navigating those waters.

ACCEPTS RESIGNATION.

The president has accepted the resignation of First Lieutenant Kent Browning, Fourth United States Infantry, to take effect at once "for the good of the service." Browning, recently stationed at Fort Sheridan, Ill., was convicted by court-martial of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman on account of incompetence.

WILL GIVE DINNER.

President Roosevelt will give a dinner

ANTI-AMERICAN FEELING GROWS

SITUATION IN CHINA SUBJECT OF CONCERN.

Boycott Rigidly Adhered to in Hopes Exclusion Act Will Be Repealed—All Foreigners May Become Affected.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Reports continue to pour into the department of state from diplomatic and consular agents in China regarding the rapid increase of feeling against Americans and things American, as expressed in edicts issued by local authorities in various parts of the empire. For six months the situation in China has been the subject of genuine concern to the department and Minister Root in under instructions to keep Washington thoroughly and frequently informed of the situation. He is also exerting himself at the Chinese capital in an effort to check or allay the anti-American feeling that appears to be growing. While it is not admitted that the situation is one of immediate danger, officials here will not be surprised at any developments a month may bring forth.

Although at the outset demanding only return to the provision of the original exclusion treaty of 1880, which excluded from this country Chinese laborers without specifying the classes of Chinamen which should be admitted, in some provinces manifestos have been issued declaring if the boycott is rigidly adhered to America will be forced to forego any exclusion at all. Such expressions have been immediately denied by Root at Pekin. Although directed primarily against Americans, the feeling of ill will that seems to be growing in various parts of the empire is interpreted by officials here to have a far deeper meaning. It is declared to be anti-foreign and there are indications that all foreigners, with the exception of the Japanese, will soon be adversely affected as are Americans. Informal representations regarding the Chinese situation already have been exchanged between some of the European powers, but thus far this country has not called foreign nations into consultation because there is a very general feeling among European powers that the Chinese are unjustly discriminated against by the American government, and so long as the anti-foreign feeling is confined to Americans the Europeans are expected to abide their time.

CANAL COMMISSION

Transmits to Secretary of War Reports of Board of Consulting Engineers.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The report of the isthmian canal commission transmitting to the secretary of war the majority and minority reports of the board of consulting engineers, together with the views of the canal commission, were laid before Secretary Taft to day. The commission's report sets out the reasons which influenced all the commissioners save Admiral Endicott to accept the views of the minority of the board of consulting engineers rather than the majority, which favored a sea level canal. The engineers' report consists of no less than 100 large printed pages. To the minority engineers' report, which secured the approval of a majority of the commission, was appended a letter from Chief Engineer Stevens reinforcing the reasoning of the minority, after a careful analysis of the two plans of a sea level and lock canal. Accompanying the commission's report is the minority report of Rear Admiral and Commissioner Endicott, the only member to accept the views of the majority of engineers. Secretary Taft intends to immediately begin formulating his own conclusions upon the radically different views thus presented to him, for information of the president.

The commission has also adopted recommendation of Chief Engineer Stevens, involving the expenditure of $50,000 for the installation of a Colon. Trovelli also has been made for the installation of an electric light and power plant for Colon and Panama, to cost $40,000.

CONSIDER INCIDENT CLOSED.

TWO CENT FARE BILL.

Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 6.—The house this evening by a vote of 161 to 1 passed the Freiner two cent fare bill which was submitted for the Baltimore bill passed by the senate. The senate, it is said, will accept the Freiner bill, which will go into effect thirty days after it is signed by the governor.

CHINESE COMMISSION.

West Point, N. Y., Feb. 6.—Members of the Chinese imperial commission, who are studying American institutions visited the Military academy to day. They exhibited the liveliest interest in everything concerning the training of army officers.

BIG PLANT SOLD.

Racine, Wis., Feb. 6.—It was authoritatively announced this evening that the big Racine Malleable and Wrought Iron company's plant at Lakeside, had been sold to Cleveland, Ohio, parties for $200,000.

ELECTION DATE.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 6.—Elections to the national assembly will be held April 7th. The national assembly will be convened April 20th.

"I think the state is in a position to lift this burden completely from its citizens," he said.

TO ABOLISH WRESTLING.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Judo, the Japanese style of wrestling, will be abolished from the Naval academy if Rear Admiral Sands, commandant of the academy, is permitted to have his way. Admiral Sands thinks but little of the style of wrestling popularized by the president's attitude toward it.

SPECIAL ENGAGEMENT.

Those who heard "Roney's Boys," "the sweetest singers on the globe," and Kavanagh, when they appeared to a packed house at the Grand some years ago, will be especially pleased to learn that the management here has secured Mr. Roney after several attempts to arrange a date. Trombones, adjectives and crowded houses have followed him throughout this season.

Rochester (N. Y.) Democrat: "Roney's Boys" sang into instant favor and their concert was one of the most wonderful ever heard in Rochester. They entranced, amazed, and bewildered the audience. Boys of ten, twelve and thirteen sang like professionals; they played the chimes, the violin and the flute, and the audience went wild with admiration. "Roney's Boys" will be one of the most popular attractions to be seen here this season." At the Grand Saturday night.

FELL ON THE ICE.

Helen Obermeyer, the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Obermeyer, suffered from a very peculiar accident Tuesday about noon. She slipped and fell on the ice, striking her head on the sidewalk. But aside from a painful bruise nothing more was thought of the accident. She went to her school after dinner and about 2 o'clock she was seized with a severe pain in the head, which, becoming worse, necessitated her being taken home. The pain increased and she became delirious. A physician was called and remained with much anxiety was felt regarding the outcome. Late in the afternoon she fell passed into unconsciousness in which she remained for several hours, but seemed to be resting easier.

COAL STORAGE SHED.

A force of workmen in the employ of the city is engaged in erecting a shed in the rear of the city light plant for the storage of coal. The surplus fuel has in the past been dumped upon the ground in the same place, where it was exposed to the action of the elements until used. The need of such a storage shed has long been felt, and its erection will be a great improvement.

Important Announcement.

"THE BIG STORE" does not contemplate carrying on this business in Jacksonville, but that the stocks are to be closed out. We take this opportunity of stating that this rumor is utterly false. It is our intention (and has been ever since we succeeded the Alexander Mercantile Company on these premises) to go forward with the business. In compliance with this policy we have rearranged all stocks; closed out as nearly as possible all old merchandise and have added hundreds of dollars worth of new goods to every department. Our manager and his entire force are bending every energy toward making this store what it should be—one of the foremost department stores in this section.

"SATISFY YOUR CUSTOMER" is the implicit rule given to every sales person. All mistakes are cheerfully rectified. We shall strive at all times to give to the people of this vicinity the best merchandise the market affords and our close touch with importers and manufacturers places us in a position to buy goods at very low prices.

We want to make this a store of which you will be proud to say: "I bought it at The Big Store."

The following departments are now receiving new spring goods.

Dry Goods,	Draperies,	Paints,
Notions,	Floor Coverings,	Groceries,
Ladies' Furnishings,	Wall Paper,	Window Shades,
China,	Furniture,	Hardware.

Since we took charge of this store in September our business has more than doubled. We want to make it greater still. Honest, straightforward business methods, we think, will accomplish it.

THE HOMESICKERS.

"Other house" Thursday night, "The Homesickers," a new comedy drama which deals with the life in the south and west, is meeting with great success this season. One reason why this play has secured so heavily is because of its natural situations. Its plot is reasonable and strong with a sustained and intense heart interest and is intensified by an assembly of individual characters true to the locality in which the scenes are laid. There is an abundance of comedy, legitimate, and not made up of horse play and worn out jokes, but truly funny and drawn from real life.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the Republican nomination for the office of sheriff, subject to the approval of the Republicans at the primaries and in convention.

Charles B. Graft.

FOR COUNTY CLERK.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the nomination for the office of county clerk, subject to the decision of the Republican voters in primaries and convention.

JAMES H. MERRILL.

COLLECT AMOUNTS DUE.

Steps have been taken by the state administration to ascertain if, as charged by Attorney General Street, the Illinois Central railroad is escaping the payment of more than $1,000,000 a year in taxes, and also to learn whether the company owes the state fully $20,000,000 in back taxes.

In pursuance of an order issued by Governor Deussen, two expert accountants from the state auditor's department are now conducting a searching and thorough examination of the books of the Illinois Central road, which are kept at the general offices in Chicago. The work is in charge of F. D. Whipp, who says his order requires him to make the most complete one that the state ever before has made into the financial affairs of the Illinois Central. The work may consume several weeks, perhaps months.

No opposition was made on the part of the railroad company to the examination, which, under the laws, the state has the right to make at least once every year. As a matter of fact, however, no examination has been made since the Tanner administration, the returns of receipts to the state auditor having been taken as conference had been sent or was null and void.

The accountants began their work in the office of the auditor of freight receipts, and when this branch is completed, the auditor of passenger receipts will be visited. Officials of the company say the examination is purely perfunctory.

SANGAMON POLITICS.

Factional differences, which have existed in the Republican party in Sangamon county, will not figure in the coming county election, according to the State Journal. Harmony, it is predicted, will prevail and every Republican, it is declared, will be found with his shoulder at the wheel for the election of the county clerk. A conference of the leaders of what has been known as the Cullom and Yates factions was held, but not a man in the conference had been sent for or was authorized to speak for anyone but himself and each expressed the intention to individually support the ticket nominated, so long as it was made up of good Republicans.

It was the opinion of those present that the county primaries should be dependent upon a plurality vote, the candidate receiving the highest number of votes being the nominee. The new primary law will be instrumental in bringing harmony to the Republican party for the reason that under the law the leaders will be shorn of powers which in the past have created trouble.

The primary law provides for the election of county committeemen the same as the election of candidates. The chairman must be one who has been elected as a member of the committee and the secretary also must be chosen from the committee.

TUMORS CONQUERED

SERIOUS OPERATIONS AVOIDED.

Unqualified Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the Case of Mrs. Fannie D. Fox.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy, Tumor.

The growth of a tumor is so slow that frequently its presence is not suspected until it is far advanced.

Mrs. Fannie D. Fox

So-called "wandering pains" may come from its early stages, or the presence of danger may be made manifest by profuse monthly periods, accompanied by unusual pain, from the abdomen through the groin and thighs. If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation or displacement, secure a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound right away and begin its use.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., will give you her advice if you will write her about yourself. She is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
I take the liberty to congratulate you on the success I have had with your wonderful medicine. Eighteen months ago my periods stopped. Shortly after I felt so badly that I submitted to a thorough examination by a physician and was told that I had a tumor and would have to undergo an operation. "Soon after I read one of your advertisements and decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. After taking a bottle and directed the tumor is entirely gone. I have been examined by a physician and he says I have no signs of a tumor now. It has also brought my periods around, even more, and I am generally well." Fannie D. Fox, 7 Chestnut Street, Bradford, Pa.

zation chiefs at a conference in Chicago decided to call a meeting of the state committee in Springfield for Feb. 14, at which time the call for the state convention will be issued, and probably some action will be taken regarding the senatorial campaign.

It is regarded as bad policy for county committees to declare themselves in favor of either Cullom or Yates, the two senatorial candidates, or for any congressional or other candidates, as a matter of fact. For this reason the state committee will be urged to adopt a resolution asking the county committees to "keep off the grass."

It will be put to the state committee, and later probably to the county committees, that a declaration for one of the candidates is an attempt to "stultify" the primary law, which gives the people a chance to express their opinion on the senatorial proposition.

One county in the nineteenth congressional district has brought this question up by declaring for Cullom for the senate and for Congressman McKinley for re-nomination. It is thought that if the state committee takes a decided stand against such expressions the various subordinate bodies may see the virtue of consistency involved in the proposition and do as requested.

THE RAILROAD RATE BILL.

Representative Burton, of Ohio, made a speech in the house Friday on the railroad rate bill, receiving the most serious attention given to any speaker who has touched upon this measure.

He pictured at the outset the changes that had been wrought in the industries of the United States, including the transportation industry. He showed the needs of making new conditions, regulation being one of the necessities arising from these changed conditions. The necessity of regulation carries with it the necessity for the power to fix rates and their speedy adjudication in the courts.

The Hepburn bill, he said, strikes at all the devices for securing special privileges for common carriers. It also makes for the largest measure of equality between competing localities. The railroads may have been no worse than others competing in business, but the fact remains that they must be restrained by wise and just legislation. "We hold the great shipper alike culpable with the railroad manager," he said, "because he holds a club over the railroad official. He must be subjected to the same laws and jurisdiction."

Burton concluded by expressing the hope that "awakened public sentiment will destroy the oppressive corporations and establish a system of industrial development throughout the country, characterized by rules of honesty and equality."

"This legislation is a step in the right direction," he said. "It is a declaration that organized wealth must submit to the law. It is a declaration that there is no organized capital so strong that the government can not place its restraining hand upon it."

ILLINOIS CENTRAL STOCK.

President Fish of the Illinois Central, as well as president Harriman of the Union Pacific, declined to discuss the reports from Chicago to the effect that the Union Pacific had acquired control of the Illinois Central; nevertheless, it was learned from reliable sources that E. H. Harriman and associates have been accumulating Illinois Central stock for some time for the purpose of effecting a change in the management of that company.

According to information President Fish of the Illinois Central will never consent to a merger with the Union Pacific, and up to the present time the Harriman Union Pacific interests have not been able to acquire a majority of the Illinois Central. In any event, no important change in the management of the Illinois Central is likely to take place until next October, or when the annual meeting of the stockholders is held.

Plans for acquiring control of the property were formed several years ago, or when Kuhn, Loeb & Co. purchased the Speyer & Co. holdings of the railroad securities company's stock. When the Railroad securities company acquired some 100, a gentleman's agreement voting power arrangement was made covering the Illinois Central stock. It was agreed that President Fish, as a director of the securities company, should be one of three to vote the Illinois Central stock. The last three directors' meetings of the Railroad securities company attended by President Fish have been adjourned.

ART ASSOCIATION

February Meeting at Home of Mr. Frank Elliott—Profusion of Views Exhibited by Host.

To Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elliott the Art association is indebted for one of the most delightful evenings on the year's program. At their charming home, beautified by products of brush and pencil, gathered from far and near, and rendered still more attractive by the genial atmosphere of cordial hospitality, the guests spent two delightful hours last evening.

Under the skillful guidance of Mr. Elliott, they were led in imagination across the waters, carried by the floating palace, Celtic, to Liverpool, and thence began their migrations. First to be inspected were the grand old cathedrals of England, Chester, Lincoln, Ely and others—each with its peculiar style of architecture, each having its own wonderful story, each a historic landmark of a particular period—all combining the noblest and best elements of artistic genius.

Then to London and a glimpse at the National Gallery and the Wallace collection—to Windsor castle and Hampton court—both affording themes sufficient for many a long discourse—and to Paris where the treasures of the Louvre were brought once more to view, and the notable features of the Pantheon were described.

Thence the travelers sped five hundred miles through southern France, past fields checkerboarded with many colored crops, past villages basking dreamily on the mountain slopes, along swift flowing streams hastening to their rest with the sun, through forest almost primeval, till at length Avignon was reached, and some happy days spent in a hotel which had once served as the residence of the popes. Here a cathedral, surrounded by charming gardens was explored.

Marseilles, with its commercial rush and stir; Nice, with its delightful rides and drives and views; Monaco, smallest of republics—were next visited; and then Monte Carlo, chief gambling resort of the world. Not being an adept in "ways that are dark and tricks that are vain," the guide did not linger long amid the enticements of this noted spot, but hastened by the upper Corniche road, which winds along the mountains edge, closeclinging to Montone. Thence to San Remo, to Genoa, reminiscent of the great navigator, to Milan, with its marvelous many pinnacled cathedral; to Verona, where a Roman amphitheatre is notable; and at last to Venice, city and bride of the sea.

Here the Dog's palace, St. Mark's and the other historical points of interest had due attention, and then Florence, with its Uffizi and Pitti galleries, its many gardens and manifold attractions of nature and art, was brought vividly to view. Through Pisa to the Eternal City, and a look at St. Peter's, then to Naples, and to once buried Pompeii, marvelous in its remains, then to Amalfi, the town that has climbed half way up the mountain, and stops there to rest.

The speaker here paused also, not for lack of material, but because the clock gave warning, and because Mrs. Elliott suggested that the travelers might like to adjourn to another room, where they found some dainty refreshments, quite to their taste.

Mr. Elliott's lively and entertaining talk was illustrated by a profusion of views, of great interest. After listening to the secretary, Mrs. Reid's report of the previous meeting, and the announcement of Mr. Vandervool's art lecture next week, and with the expression of many thanks to host and hostess, the guests said good night.

ENTERED INTO REST

Long and Useful Life of Mrs. Phoebe Gates Strawn Brought to a Close—Summons Came Tuesday Morning—Funeral Services Will Take Place Friday.

Mrs. Phoebe Gates Strawn, widow of Jacob Strawn, entered into rest at her home on West College avenue Tuesday morning at 7:20 o'clock, at the age of 92 years. She had been in poor health for some time, but up to within a few months ago was able to ride out occasionally. She had recently been much worse, and her death was not unexpected.

The demise of Mrs. Strawn removes from the state one of the most interesting personages in its history. So closely identified was her life with the growth and development of this commonwealth, and especially of Morgan county, that to tell the history of the one is to relate the leading facts in the history of the other. The active helpmeet of perhaps the greatest farmer the state has ever known, to her no less than to him, was due in a large measure the rapid reclaiming of the richest farming district of the country from its native wildness, and bringing it to minister to man's needs.

Born in Deerfield, Washington county, Ohio, Oct. 28, 1811, the daughter of Samuel and Susan (Emerson) Gates, she removed to this state with her parents when two years of age. The family first settled in Calhoun county but shortly afterward removed to Greene county, where she first met Mr. Strawn. To quote a biographer of the '70s, "Having met in that year ('31) a lady of Greene county, Miss Phoebe Gates, the daughter of Samuel Gates, Esq., he (Mr. Strawn) was attracted by her rare beauty and commanding figure, and to give his own language, he determined to 'win her as his bride.' On the 8th of July following (1832) the happy nuptials were celebrated at the residence of Mr. Gates. * * * It is enough to say that Mrs. Strawn is in every way worthy of being the wife of the Great American Farmer; but it was one of those unions founded upon good sense and good judgment, and forcibly demonstrated in the subsequent life of the parties."

Mrs. Strawn was described by those who knew her as "a woman of fine colloquial powers, of rare amiableness of character, and her suave and affable manners endeared her to all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance." She was possessed of a strong Christian character, having been a member of the First Presbyterian church of this city, now the State Street Presbyterian church. Her father was a native of Maine and her mother of Vermont and from such sturdy stock did she inherit the strict sense of duty and strong determination which characterized the whole of her long and useful life.

Mrs. Strawn was the mother of six children: Daniel, who died at the age of 8 years; Julius E.; Jacob, Jr., who died in 1889 at the age of 30 years; Gates; Dr. David G., and Amelia, who died at the age of 93 years in 1888. The three surviving sons reside in this city. She also leaves a half sister, Mrs. Sarah Elliott, of Sacramento, Cal., and a brother, James Gates, of Bayard, Iowa. Her husband died Aug. 23, 1865, at the old homestead, five miles southwest of the city, and since 1882 she has lived with her sons at her West College avenue home.

Funeral services will be held at the home Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Dr. A. B. Moray will be in charge of the services and he will be assisted by Dr. W. F. Short. Interment will be made in Diamond Grove cemetery, where the remains of her husband now repose.

A CORRECTION.

In reading the obituary of William Helliwell in the Journal of recent date the writer said that Mr. Helliwell had lived east of Woodson for eight years. The decedent rented a farm of Mr. Routt and moved to that farm in the spring of 1885, and on Sept. 18, of that year Mr. Helliwell attended the James Groves sale on that date and he did his first business with me. Mr. Helliwell approached me to settle. I read in his good old Yorkshire face truth and honesty; and we did business. He told me he was a renter under Mr. Routt which was a good certificate, and that Farwell, Vagastaff, of Murrayville, his relative, would be his indorsee. We did much business with him until his premature demise. He lived in Woodson precinct until six years ago.

Wabash Engines Come Together Near Hannibal—Damage is Slight—Rival Mail Trains Have Close Race.

Wabash train No. 1, west, Sunday night collided with a southbound train known as No. 39 on the Burlington track between Hannibal and Quincy. The accident occurred on the eighteen mile stretch of Burlington track which the Wabash trains use between Hannibal and Quincy. The collision occurred about 11:10 p. m. The Iron Mountain lost thirty-five minutes.

George W. Dye, division passenger and freight agent for the Burlington, is spending a few days in Centralia, Herrin and Carbondale on company business.

Tuesday was the regular home-seeker's excursion on the Wabash to the west. Passenger train No. 9 was about two hours late into this city on account of waiting on eastern connections.
